

People buy goods on longest avenue in the capital Tehran, Vali-e Asr, ahead of Norouz on March 15, 2023.

● ALIREZA MASOUMI/ISNA

Demonstrators hold placards and flags, chanting slogans as they take part in a protest called by the British trade union Public and Commercial Services Union (PCS) amid a dispute with the government over pay, outside Downing Street in London, on March 15, 2023.

● JUSTIN TALLIS/AFP

A Rohingya family arrives for a meeting with the Myanmar officials in Teknaf on March 15, 2023. Myanmar officials were meeting with Rohingya refugees on March 15 in what Bangladeshi authorities said was the revival of a long-stalled effort to return the persecuted minority to their homeland.

● AFP

Tourists camp on a beach in Mogham port in the southern province of Hormuzgan, Iran, on March 15, 2023.

● POURIA PAKIZEH/ISNA

Former Pakistan's prime minister Imran Khan speaks during an interview with AFP at his residence in Lahore on March 15, 2023, while displaying tear gas shells fired by riot police during clashes with hundreds of his supporters gathered at his residence to prevent his arrest.

● AAMIR QURESHI/AFP

Security personnel stand guard as members of India's opposition parties take part in a protest near the Parliament in New Delhi on March 15, 2023, calling for an enquiry into allegations of major accounting fraud at Adani, the country's biggest conglomerate.

● ARUN SANKAR/AFP

A protester sticks a poster with the slogan "Don't Come Back" during a demonstration outside Ben Gurion airport near Tel Aviv against the controversial judicial reform bill as Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu heads to Germany on an official visit on March 15, 2023.

● AHMAD GHARABLI/AFP

