South Africa's ICJ case against Israel

2 >

After more than three months, Israel's onslaught on the Palestinian territory has now reached the International Court of Justice (ICJ), where South Africa has become the first country in the world to file a suit against the regime for the crimes it has committed in Gaza. The International Court of Justice, also known as the World Court, is set to hold hearings on January 11 and 12 on the case, which has accused Israel of genocide in Gaza.
