

Real impact of Iran's strike yet to be seen

By Mehdi Sa'adati

Iranian lawmaker

OPINION
EXCLUSIVE

In the midst of the behind-the-scenes negotiations between Israel's supporters and Iran to stave off Iran's retaliatory measures against the Zionist regime, they agreed to broker a cease-fire deal in the Gaza Strip on the condition that Iran refrained from striking back at Israel. However, in reality, they were not forthright in their remarks; their true intention was to steer Iran away from retaliating against Israel's earlier raid on Iran's consulate in Syria.

8 >

Iran Daily

irandaily.ir

newspaper.irandaily.ir

IranDailyWeb

Vol. 7536 • Thursday, April 18, 2024 • Farvardin 30, 1403 • Shawwal 9, 1445 • 100,000 rials • 8 pages

Warning on Strategic Mistake

Raisi vows severe response to any Israeli strike

7 >

Iranian President Ebrahim Raisi (c) observes a military parade on the occasion of the National Army Day in the capital Tehran, Iran, on April 17, 2024.
● MOSTAFA ROUDAKI/MIZAN