Obstacles to ceasing Gaza war Israel seeks a temporary truce, Hamas a lasting one

INTERVIEW EXCLUSIVE

Several attempts at negotiating a cease-fire to stop the Israeli war on the Gaza Strip have proven fruitless. In the latest round of talks, Hamas agreed to the cease-fire terms while Israel did not comply. The ongoing impasse begs the question: what is the primary barrier to halting the war in the Palestinian enclave? Furthermore, does the failure of the recent negotiations imply that a cease-fire is off the table? To shed light on this matter, we've spoken with Mansour Barati, an expert on Middle East affairs.
