

Iran to back Hezbollah in case of all-out Israeli war

2 >

Iran Daily

Vol. 7595 • Wednesday, July 3, 2024 • Tir 13, 1403 • Dhu al-Hijjah 26, 1445 • 100,000 rials • 8 pages

irandaily.ir

newspaper.irandaily.ir

IranDailyWeb

Iran exports crude to 17 countries: Oil minister

2 >

Foreign Policy Dominates 1st Runoff Debate

Masoud Pezeshkian and Saeed Jalili, the two candidates running for presidency, locked horns in the first televised debate ahead of the Friday's runoff election. The candidates presented their plans on political, cultural and economic issues. Pezeshkian, a former health minister and current lawmaker, touched on the important issue of sanctions which have had significant impacts on the country's economy for several years.

7 >

Iranian presidential candidates Masoud Pezeshkian (R) and Saeed Jalili greet each other after taking part in a live election debate at the Iranian national television studio in Tehran on July 1.
● MORTEZA FAKHRINEJAD/IRIB

From crisis to conservation: Iran's endangered wildlife, preservation efforts

8 >

EXCLUSIVE

Iran is home to a diverse range of animal species, but over the past few decades, around 86 species have become endangered due to various factors. In response, the country's Department of Environment has developed a targeted action plan to safeguard 23 species at risk and is actively implementing it.

Iran urges European action against Israel's crimes in Gaza

7 >

Iran can become BRICS's corridor for agricultural exports: Official

2 >

Iran capable of winning 10 Asian Games medals: New athletics chief

6 >

Israel pushing Lebanon, region toward full-scale war

SPECIAL ISSUE

4-5 >

